Better Communication - November 2010

Lidia, The Hamptons & MOMA! Oh My!

Guess where I was when I should have been sending my mid-month update two weeks ago? In New York City! Yep, that's a pretty good reason for not keeping on schedule.

One of most amazing things about the trip was meeting Lidia Bastianich, one of my cooking heroes, while dining at her restaurant Eataly. Her PBS show "Lidia's Italy" is must-see TV at my house, and several of her recipes grace our table with alarming frequency. She told me to "keep cooking," and I will. We also dined at another of her restaurants, Felidia, and weren't disappointed.

I also met with a client in the Hamptons during the trip. What a beautiful place Southampton is, and I couldn't have picked a better time of year to visit. Thanks so much for the hospitality Linda and everyone at Hamptons Creative Group.

Another highlight of the trip was seeing the Museum of Modern Art and The Cloisters for the first time. I think I took every subway line and walked 20 miles a day exploring the city.

Now it's back to work after a superb trip that was a little work and a lot of play. Need help communicating your message? I can assist. I'm rested and recovered. Really.
